Willemstad + east

01-07 / LOCAL LUNCHES, FISH + A LATE-NIGHT STOP

01 Plasa Bieu / Old Market — MAP PIN

Punda · De Ruyterkade

Several Krioyo kitchens share this covered market. Go for a plate of stew, fish and island sides. Best treated as a lunch stop.

02 Komedor Krioyo Plus — MAP PIN

Schottegatweg Oost 66

Everyday traditional cooking in town, with comforting stews and local sides. This is a different restaurant from Dokterstuin (09).

03 Purunchi Koredor — MAP PIN

Koredor waterfront

A small fish restaurant in a former fisherman's house. Come for fish and local sides on the waterside terrace; check ahead for seating.

04 De Visserij Piscadera — MAP PIN

Piscadera fishing harbor

Order at the counter and eat by the harbor. Choose from the available fish and seafood. It is a popular spot, so allow for a queue.

05 Sea Side Terrace — MAP PIN

Goetoeweg · Marie Pampoen

Simple open-air dining on the city's eastern coast. Local-style fish and seafood are the draw, with a relaxed waterfront setting.

06 Brisa do Mar / Pop's Place — MAP PIN

Caracasbaai waterfront

A relaxed bay-side stop for fish, goat stew and other local dishes. Both names refer to the same place. Casual does not always mean cheap.

07 Kòki Riba Blòki — MAP PIN

Santa Rosaweg

A truk'i pan for grilled meats, fries and sauces. Plan it as a separate late-evening stop, rather than part of a daytime lunch outing.

Gold marker 07 = late evening. Check opening days before making a special trip.

West + Banda Abou

08-14 / VILLAGE KITCHENS + TRADITIONAL FOOD

08 Toko Williwood — MAP PIN

Sint Willibrordus 3

An open-air village stop known for the Williburger, made with goat meat. Toko Williwood and Marfa's Good Hangout are the same stop.

09 Komedor Krioyo · Dokterstuin — MAP PIN

Landhuis Dokterstuin · near Barber

Krioyo stews, fish and local sides in a historic landhuis. Plan around lunch and check opening days directly; published hours disagree.

10 Marshe di Barber — MAP PIN

Barber village market

Food stalls, rather than one restaurant. Go early on Sunday for local soups, stews and pumpkin pancakes. Selection varies by stall.

11 Shelterrock Paradise — MAP PIN

Flip 17 · Jan Donker

An informal hilltop restaurant with broad views. The Friday coconut meal needs advance booking through the restaurant.

12 Immanuel Café — MAP PIN

Wacao 110 · Weg naar Westpunt

A modest roadside stop for local-style meals such as stews and fish. Check the current menu and opening hours before a special trip.

13 Dibario — MAP PIN

Lagun 46b

A casual kitchen near Playa Lagun, with dishes such as stewed beef or chicken and local sides. Ask what is being cooked that day.

14 Jaanchie's Restaurant — MAP PIN

Sabana Westpunt

A longstanding traditional restaurant for local dishes and seafood. A characterful lunch option; check the day's menu and prices when you arrive.

Gold marker 10 = Sunday morning market. Friday coconut meal at 11 needs booking.

A little planning helps

START WITH ONE AREA

This is a menu of places to choose from, not a 14-stop food crawl. Pick one or two meals around your day.

CHECK BEFORE YOU GO

Confirm today's opening hours and menu. Ask about prices and dietary needs directly with the kitchen.

TIMING MATTERS

Barber market: Sunday morning. Kòki Riba Blòki: late evening. Shelterrock's Friday coconut meal: book ahead.

KNOW WHAT YOU ARE ORDERING

Stobá means stew. Funchi is a cornmeal side. Krioyo refers to local Creole-style cooking. Availability varies.
